

DOVE

Based upon original documents in every case possible and in the field of unwritten stories of the early Doves I have done my best to gather as many as possible from the oldest people who might have them.

But much knowledge is gone; those people who have left the community without giving their stories, those who have died, their stories are gone forever but those who have migrated to other parts, their stories may be found in their descendents traditions handed down through their traditions.

I have found the remains of some of these old independent histories in traditions. Pen Turner and myself were planning to visit old Socrates Dove because he was a very old man and was the youngest child of a large family - the oldest which goes back over 100 years. So Socrates must have heard many very old traditions from the older members of his family.

But Socrates died before we could put our plans into action. I attended his burial - there was only a brief service at the house - no religious service. "Sock" as he was known looked the same as he did the first time I saw him 25 years ago. He never joined any church any church but he was a model moral man and so are his children. I remember him as a famous tobacco chewer, chewing it vigorously. He was always a healthy man and death overtook him in an attack of flu and pneumonia during a spring snow.

They say his mind was still perfect up to the last. He was 92 or 93 years old. He had married Clara Whetzel in 1867.

The following genealogy of Henry (Doup) Dove and his descendants compiled from the records of Alonzo Dove and my own compiled by Lewis Yankey 1980.

Credit is also given to these for much information

Benjamin Turner
"Doc" Smith
Maynard Hottinger
and many others

So far little is known of Henry "Toup" Doves ancestors. Tradition is that he migrated with his family from Germany to America by way of New York and to Loudoun Co. VA by way of Pennsylvania, Maryland, to Loudoun Co. VA. The first account of him is that he lived near William and Thomas Jackson in 1765 in Loudoun Co. VA. He came to Brock's Gap northwest Pockingham Co, VA then Augusta Co, became a large landowner, lived a few hundred yards from where the village of Dovesville was founded.

Dovesville was later changed to West Gap and today (1980) is known as Bergton. Some of Henry's children were born in Germany. Records show he provided some provisions for the Revolutionary Army. It is believed he had a brother Mathias Doubt who lived near Scotts Ford, Port Republic area. It is not known if he was ever married or had any children.

Aaron Dove wrote a handwrite similar to his father George Esq in English who was from tradition the teacher of the Dove family into the English speaking and writing.

Aaron lived at the old Will Wittig place now Harry Keplinger (1980) according to George L. Dove. Ben Turner says that James and Oliver told him they were born there. "Doc" Dove and Ben Turner say that Aaron later moved down on his wife's home place and got the Baker estate. This later became his son Ahab's home place.

The story is told by Doc and Ben and Dorcas Smith that Aaron's wife Sally had no children for 10 years after their marriage which was a source of constant grievances and quarrels between Aaron and his wife. but after 10 years she had ten children in a row. Their birth dates bear out this story. Aaron owned the Dovesville store tavern, mill and still house. While eating lunch at the mill, he choked on a piece of "Jerky" dried beef and while coughing it up, he fell through a hole in the floor and broke his neck. "Dad" Sutherly and his boy who told the story were there from South Fork W.VA with a grist to have ground into meal and saw him choke and fall to his death. This was the nearest mill in the country then and stood by the river bank.

Aaron and Sally were buried on the Dove Cemetery on the hill where the Lutheran Church used to stand at Dovesville (now Bergton). Two matched wood carved markers nicely lettered are still there (1980)

Children

- 4/1837 Catherine Dove (BB by Evelyn "Eve" Sowder of Philip) married Jacob Fawley 1/20/1858
- 9/12/1839 Barbara Frances Dove (D 7/20/1896) married William Whetzel (10/4/1835-7/22/1923) of George & Jemima
- 1845 Oliver A Dove moved to Mt. Gerat Mo. 1863
- 1850-2 Franklin Rehoham Dove married [1] Elizabeth "Betsy" Ann May⁽¹⁸⁵⁴⁾ of Joseph & Sarah Alice on 5/6/1877; [2] Elizabeth "Bettie" Hulvey (1858) of George & Dianna on 9/4/1890
- 1846 Sarah Jane Dove married Israel Caplinger of Jacob
- 1848 Romelus Dove

Joseph and Jemima lived together by common-law marriage in a small cabin house at the foot of the hill between Caplingers and Sievers by the road also later called the "Kessner House" where he had a few acres of land. Joe was a rather heavy man not very industrious. His byword was "It behooves us".

In their old days they lived in a house close to William Whetzel (who married their daughter, Barbara) up Cold Spring river, now Luther Crider place (1980) where they died a week or so apart c 1897 according to Cora Whetzel Frank Hottinger says exactly a week apart. Jemima first, then Joe. He got up out of his death bed to look at his wife in her coffin.

In the 1850 Census Jemima still calls herself Riggleman, but called her children Dove. Joe first lived with Eva Souder of Philip who had Catherine Dove by him. Eva later married George Fulk in 1844. Catherine married Jacob Fawley. Jacob was killed in the Civil War and was buried at Winchester VA. They had one daughter born 1860, Martha L. Fawley, who married Milton May of Strother.

 January 14, 1911

Franklin Rehoboam of Joseph and Jemima called "Whaler" so nicknamed from his recitation of his deer hunting exploits according to Doc Dove who told this in (1942). That Frank would say he saw a deer in the brush and "up my gun and whaled away at im and shot im" Frank lived on the Will Whetzel place up Cold Spring river now Luther Criders (1980) He later moved across the mountain to near Ft Seybert.

Frank Hottinger says that Amelia Frances "Little Frances" was named after her aunt Barbara Frances Whetzel wife of William Whetzel and stayed with them a long time. She had a baseborn daughter Gladys who was said to belong to Steve Freed and was raised by Will Dove of New Market. He got her out of the poor house according to Ben Turner and adopted her. Gladys W. Dove was born 1904. She married William F. Winegard of William and Mattie on April 20, 1920.

"Gern" was the last person in Brock's Gap to be whipped at the "whipping post". He was whipped by Squire Neff for stealing a horse and through humiliation left and went to Missouri where he got his wife, Lydia, and returned home with his family after 1883. "Gern" was a tough father to his beautiful daughters: several ran away from home. "Gern", in his later married days, dated Rhoda May who had by him a son Roby "Putt" May. "Gern" moved to Meckville PA close to 1920 with part of his family (I spent some time in their home and must say Lydia was one of the nicest old ladies I ever met. Just like a mother. Compiler's note)

Cora Dove of Algern & Lydia ran away from home. Gossip is that she was in a house of ill repute. Beulah Lantz Dove, daughter of Dolly, Cora's sister, worked in Western State Hospital, Staunton, VA in 1968. Saw an old woman registering for treatment age 84, said she was Cora Dove and had been married to a Robertson from Southern Virginia. Beulah says she looked almost exactly like her mother. Dolly, wife of Webster Lantz. When Beulah told her she was Dolly Dove's daughter, she looked excited and "shut up like a clam" and wouldn't speak anymore and next day had left when Beulah looked for her. Looks like "Cora" was dodging any of her kin which she hardly expected to find working in the State Hospital for the Mentally Ill.

George Dove married Catherine Nesselrodt who gained the reputation as "Kate the Witch" daughter of Fredrick Nazelrod and Lydia Vankey. Fredrick Nazelrod lived on Bennetts Run just above where Bennett's Run and Overly Run come together. George squandered his father-in-law's land and moved to the top of the Shenandoah Mountain at the head of a branch known as Spring Run near the head of Bennett's Run. His brother James who lived near Timberville came up often to get George out of scrapes with Isaiah Dove and others. They claimed some of each other's land and it is said that James had cattle grazing on the mountain in summertime and knew that occasionally George butchered one of them but did not prosecute because he was his brother and he (James) was his brother's keeper as stated in Genesis of the Bible.

Catherine, after George's death, lived in the house at the head of Spring Run. Kate was accused of being a witch (which is now balogna)

The story is told that Kate visited Paul Smith's. The children had been playing with a broom and had left it laying in the doorway and that Kate would not enter until it was removed.

Benjamin Franklin Dove nicknamed "Organ Grinder" lived in a house under the hill below where Casper Turner's house now stands on the Shenandoah Mountain. In later years he moved to Bennetts Run below Solomon Smith's. There was constant enmity between the two families. Aquilla married George Trumbo, divorced him and later married him and again divorced him once more.

Susan of George never married but had twins born one day apart. Silas Hottinger said to be the father of one and John Fink the father of the other.

Reuben Dove of George. His application for a marriage certificate Bond Book p 66 c.n.7/7/1818 Rockingham Co towit: This day Martin Whetzel appeared before me William Herron deputy clerk of the said county and made oath that Catherine Dove, daughter of Jacob Dove of this county, is over the age of twenty-one years.

Martin X(his mark) Wetzel

Sworn to before me and subscribed this the 7th day of July 1818. Wm Herron D.C. Rockingham Co Bond July 7, 1818 in the 43rd year of the Commonwealth Reuben Dove and Martin Whetzel and signed the above bond for the marriage of Reuben Dove and Catherine Dove daughter of Jacob Dove

Reuben Dove

Martin ^{his}_{mark} Wetzel

Reuben courted Ann or Catherine Feaster two daughters of Henry Feaster shortly before and thought they were "witches". The reason was that he was courting one winter night and when he started to leave, she didn't want him to go and upon his refusal to stay, she said something would happen to him on his way home. Just as he approached the bridge across the river below the house someone stepped from behind a tree and pushed him over the river bank into a large pond of water; when he got home his clothes were frozen stiff. There was snow on the ground and next day he returned to the tree and there were no tracks in the snow.

Tradition is that Reuben was in the War of 1812 and in his old days received a pension and that his son John who kept his parents for the homeplace squandered his pension for drinks.

Frank Hottinger says he remembers Reuben Dove as an old man with a long white beard and says he used to visit his father Jonas Hottinger and it was explainable because Reuben Dove's wife was a sister to Jonas Hottinger's wife's father Abel Dove, Frank's grandfather.

Israel "Doc" Dove told this in 1941 that he distinctly remembered seeing Reuben Dove as an old man being baptized in the Blue Pond into the Dunker Church and that he remarked "Thank God I am baptized" c 1870.

Reuben Dove was a justice of the peace.

[Note] Catherine Feaster married her step brother George Caplinger in 1818. Ann Feaster married Martin Lantz c 1815-20.

Told to Lonzo Dove by his father George L Dove, December 1940

The land of Reuben and James Dove, brothers, extend from the present Casper Secrist's upper boundary down to Lory Wittigs barn,. George L. remembers James or Jim only as an old man living in the house on the hill across the river on the side of the mountain known later as the Add Dove house. Reuben Dove lived in a log house on the site where John Fink built a frame house. His wife was known as "Granny", a short little woman; she died before Reuben.

Their son John C Dove kept the old people and was given the land which he traded to John Fink for the later's land on top of the Shanandoah Mountain now known as the Will Turner place. The administrator of the Reuben Dove estate was William Wittig Sr and Jeremiah, being deceased his part was divided among his heirs about $12.00 apiece. George L. got a knitting for his share bought by Wittig who was agent for same and kept the money for himself.

Reuben and his wife were "Dunkers" and were buried in the Dove Cemetery down on the hill"

The line between Reuben and James crossed the bottom to near Reuben J Dove's house. The hill land known to us as Fink's Hill earlier was James Dove's hill later belonged to Harve Dove, James' son on up to and including George Whetzel's hill land. Harve Dove had a sawmill and grist mill on the river at the "Doc" Dove place. Ahab Dove somehow got the James Dove fields first above Reuben Dove's and Jeremiah bought from the dividing line up to about halfway in the Lonzo Dove, now William Thomas field from Ahab Dove. Ahab was a son of Aaron and lived below Dovesville.

George L. Dove's brother Addison married Mary Dove, a sister of Ahab and got Jim's land above what Jeremiah got from Ahab.

George L. Bought 18 acres from Addison and went year after year to the "Allegheny" lumber woods to get money to pay for it. On one of his trips to the Allegheny Mountains, he stopped at a middle aged Dove's home close to Franklin WVA who owned a mill. George L Dove's father and mother, Juliann Lantz were Dunkers both buried "down on the hill". The Lutherans would not allow the preaching of the funeral of Julia Ann in the church so it was held in the little school house at the foot of the hill where George L went to school. George L. knew an old Jacob Dove who lived back of the hill from the Lutheran Church and heard his father Jeremiah speak of an old Aaron Dove.

Joseph A Dove of Reuben eloped with Mary Wittig, daughter of Ulrick & Catherine against her father's will. They stayed awhile with his brother Abel on top of the Shenandoah Mountain from there went to South Fork WVA and from there to Maryland. After a week or so they returned as man and wife. Ulrick did not like the fact of running away and said he "stealed their girl" and for the "trick" it would cost them $1,000.00. Wittig made good this vow for when he died his estate, he gave each of his children $2,500 except Mary who received only $1,500. Mary used the money to buy a place on top of the Shenandoah Mountain and gave it to her only son, William Ashby Dove. She favored him because she said he resembled her father, Ulrick Wittig.

The home place was given to Hannah who married Charles Hupp. Two daughters, Susan and Rachel got not a penny.

Tradition is that Mary was born in a tiny log cabin in the mouth of Groves Hollow on a bed of leaves where Wittig first lived when he came over from Germany in 1831. Joseph Dove was born 10/23/1837 according to the family Bible. Their oldest child Susan Dove was born around 1862 so Mary was about 21 years of age when she and Joe began living together.

They lived awhile in a little cabin built of poles a short distance below his father Reuben Dove's house. Later they moved to their permanent home at the foot of the Shenandoah Mountain at the head of Persimmon Run above Criders Post Office now the home of Lindsey Harris (1980)

No record of the marriage of Joseph Dove and Mary Wittig can be found in Rockingham, Hardy, or Pendleton Counties. The Doves and Wittigs are said to have investigated and never found any record of their marriage.

Joseph's first child by Mary Wittig was born 1862 during the Civil War. He, Joe, was a confederate soldier. His by words were "Do I, Do he, Do Thee". He had the nickname of "Joe Fist". There are two stories about his [1] He gestured with a closed fist when talking; [2] He had a group of men building the road to the top of the mountain. Two of the men got into an argument and began to strike at each other with their fists. Joe stepped in and said I got a fist too, hence the nickname.

8/28/1848 Addison Dove of Jeremiah & Julia m Mary C Dove (1846) of Aaron & Sallie on 4/9/1876

They had one child who died in infancy according to Cora Whetzel. Mary had a baseborn child, Charles C Dove born 10/11/1871. Cora Whetzel says Addison courted Harriet Dove, but her older sister Mary pushed her aside and married him. Addison was a Brethren minister.

On July 12, 1884 Addison and Mary deeded to the trustees of the Brethren Church namely Levi Ritchie, Sr., John C Dove and Felix A Yankey, a lot for the erection of a church located in the Head of Brocks Gap for the rest of the members of said Church of the Brethren and release all claims excepting such interest as they have as members of the church.

Addison Dove sold his farm in Brock's Gap on the North Fork of the Shenandoah River known as Germany River to Felix Yankey in 1910 and moved with Mary's son, Charles C Dove to Prince William Co. VA known as Tuckahoe. On Jan 16, 1914 he made his last will and testament To Witt:

"In the name of God Amen: I Addison Dove make this my last will and testament as follows

[1] I desire that all my honest debts be paid and that I be buried in a Christian like manner and a tombstone be erected bearing the inscription "In God I Trust".

[2] I hereby bequeath to the Nokesville Church of the Brethren $75.00 Seventy-five dollars and to the Church of the Brethren at Damascus near Criders, VA $50.00 Fifty Dollars.

[3] I hereby bequeath all my personal property together with my one half interest in the farm jointly owned by myself and Charles C Dove to my wife Mary C Dove to have and to hold during her natural lifetime and I further desire that if Charles C Dove will care for and furnish a living to me and my said wife and take good care of both of us during the balance of our natural lifetime, he shall have all the personal property and real estate left by us.

Further the gold in the Nokesville Bank I desire that each of my brothers and sisters shall have a portion.

Witness my hand this day and date above mentioned.

4/8/1865 Reuben F Dove of Jeremiah (Never married) Died 8/24/1926 in Colorado

Died in Crawford Colorado at the home of Grant Dove. Buried beside William R Dove in Crawford Cemetery.

Reuben left home before he was 21 at the time of Cleveland's inauguration in 1884. When he left he was a robust and a great hunter (skipped school to go hunting)

He and his brother George L Dove went out in the valley to Israel Kline's to help harvest grain. These Dove brothers were noted as binders, did two men's work and received double pay. Reuben was quite popular with the girls.

His father Jeremiah died in 1882 and the estate seems to have been administered by "Hab" Ahab Dove who handled Reuben's share until he came of age. His brother Noah wrote to Reuben in the west probably Oregon telling him to come get his money from the estate, but Reuben is said to have replied that he did not need the money but wanted only a certain picture sent to him in Oregon.

In Oregon he kept horses for sale and came home with $500 in gold saying he had seen no silver in the country of the west.

He sold his share of land to Thornton A Dove who married his sister Mary for $100. He made several trips home staying at George L. Dove's and F A Yankey's who had married his sister Sarah. On one trip he had a suitcase full of rocks & minerals from his Rocky Mountain prospecting and had lots of money which he kept hidden.

He kept a bee ranch in the Rocky Mountains, sold honey and trafficked in furs. He reported on one of his trips home that he had never heard preaching in the west and argued religion with his brother, George L Dove. On his last visit home he was reluctant to tell about his affairs and would not answer questions and no longer boasted about his money. And when he left the last time he wrote back awhile but finally wrote that he would be traveling henceforth and would not write anymore.

(Recollections by compiler Lewis Yankey) As a small boy I remember Reuben on his last trip home. He stayed with his sister who married Felix Yankey. He made dozens of box traps and trapped for rabbits. One morning he walked off and was not heard from until his death in Colorado in 1926.

Story of Reuben Doves Last Days in Colorado

Crawford Col 7/17/1926

To William H.M. Wittig

Dear Sir: Your letter of July 10 was received and was glad to receive information it contained in regard to Reuben Dove who is at my home here very ill and with slight chance of recovery according to the doctors.

We are giving him every care and attention which the doctors advise. He does not appear to suffer greatly except to gradually become weaker. How long he has been ill or how greatly he has suffered from want of care and medical attention will perhaps be never known. It is evident that his present condition is the result.

He says he has been sick since March 1st some of the time so bad that all he could do for himself was to reach out with a dipper and get snow to quench his thirst.

After awhile his sickness became known to some who took to his isolated cave in the mountains such necessities as they could; on June 18 I started out to see him with the intention of bringing him out of the hills if possible. He has since been in my home in Crawford, Colorado.

For the past thirty years I had heard occasionally of Reuben Dove as living out in the mountains seldom visiting any settlement and mingling almost none with his fellowmen though always courteous and intelligent when anyone met and talked with him. He was said to always have money gained from the sale of furs and to subsist largely on wild fruits, nuts, herbs and game.

I started to find him and see what could be done for him. I stopped at the home of a cattleman who knew the location of his cavern and he willingly accompanied me as he was anxious to see something done for him. We left the valley and followed Hubbard Creek for five miles into the mountains where we were obliged to leave the car and climb for over a mile up a side canyon to near the summit where under a ledge of rock in a natural cave we found him a pitiful object wasted and worn unable to walk without assistance. We fashioned a stretcher by fastening blankets to two poles one for each shoulder of the man in front and the one behind. After making him ready we got him into it and carried him down the mountain to the car and before night he was made as comfortable as possible and a doctor came to see what could be done for him. This was four weeks ago and since then everything possible has been done the doctor advised for his comfort and cure, but he grows steadily weaker. The doctor says that it is impossible for him to live much longer. Most of the time he is rational and grateful for what is being done for him. He is said to have lived 12 years in the cave where we found him. He had provisions enough if he had been able to cook them.

As an explanation of his life apart from society, the story is told that when he first came to Colorado he worked all one winter making ties for the railroad. In the spring he had a nice lot of ties from which he expected a nice sum, but when the inspector culled out over half the number and he realized that the railroad would probably use all the ties and pay for half of them, he set fire to them and said he would never work another day for wages. He kept his word.

Grant G Dove
Crawford Colorado

To George L Dove (Reuben's brother) 7/20/1926

Your letter of July 12 received and in reply will say that Reuben Dove seems slightly improved although in a very weak state and his recovery is not likely. The doctor says he may linger along -- no one can say how long.

He has a deposit of $1,150 in a bank here. This seems to be the extent of his funds. He does not seem to suffer greatly and is himself most of the time. We are doing everything possible for him and he has a good doctor. He cannot take any solid foods, does take milk and fruit juices.

Will advise you of any change in him.

Grant Dove

To George L Dove July 26, 1926

I am sending to tell you the sad news of the death of your brother, Reuben Dove who passed away at my home July 24 and we buried him in the Crawford Cemetery by the side of his cousin William R Dove, my father. We brought him out of the mountains June 18 and he has been helpless as a little baby all the time and had to be cared for just as if he were a baby.

He seemed to be willing to go when his time came. I told him that the doctor said he could not live and he said he knew he would have to die that he was weaker every day.

We never could get him to talk of his past life. I have set up with him for five weeks and am pretty well worn out. Will give you a description of his home in the mountains if you desire it.

Grant Dove

A letter to Lonzo Dove from George A Dove (brother of Grant Dove) Hotchkiss Colo. 7/22/1926

Mr Dove: Your letter to hand and contents noted. Now we know that there are some of Reuben Dove's people living. Reuben certainly is in bad shape. The doctor says he has internal infection if that means anything to you as I don't know what it is or what causes it.

But he is well taken care of and has the best doctor we have here. They had two doctors out to see him one day and they agreed as to his affliction. As to getting anything out of him as regards to his past life, you cannot get him to tell anything about that. Neither will he tell anything as to why he has led the strange life that he has.

You wanted to know what kind of people he associated with? He did not associate with anyone, was very distant to everybody and people who herd their cattle in that vicinity said they frequently saw his tracks in the snow or sand but seldom got to see him as he was so accustomed to hearing them before they saw him and he would hide in the brush so they did not get to see him. He had no house at all; he lived for the past eleven years under a cliff of rocks with some logs laid up in front of the opening but not to the top of the opening. Under there he lived cooked and slept with nothing but a few cooking utensils such as a skillet, frying pan and dutch oven and cooked on a campfire. He had no stove or table with a small amount of grass covered with two bear hides and a few blankets. This comprised his bed and bedding. He certainly is a peculiar character. I was to see him Sunday and if I would ask him anything in regard to his life, he would shut up like a clam and there you stalled as he will not answer you. I tried different ways to find out but came away just as baffled as I was when I went there.

He came to town once in a while and would get shaved and cleaned up and then he'd back to the hills.

George A Dove to Lonzo Dove July 26, 1926

Lonzo: Will write you a few lines this eve to let you know that your uncle Reuben passed away July 24 at 9:30 o'clock. He kept growing weaker all the time and we had one all for him that could be done. The doctor told us from the first that he could not get well and that he would not live long and we told Reuben so but all we could get from him was to say that he was a long ways from a dead man yet.

But Saturday, the 24th he seemed to realize that the end was near so he called my brother Grant to his bed and said I am going to die as I am getting weaker all the time and Grant told him he knew it and he asked Reuben where he wanted to be buried and he said "This is my home, I want to be buried here."

So he was buried in the Crawford Cemetery on one of Grant Dove's lots beside the lot where my father is buried. He was given a nice burial. The casket cost $165.00 and there were lots of flowers and a large crowd attended the funeral. His funeral was preached by Rev. Hopkins of Hotchkiss. He died just as he lived not telling anything of his past life so all that he knew was buried with him and the many interesting things of his life will never be known.

12/2/1889 Mary Etta Riggleman (simple minded) John C Dove said to be father m (1) William H Fitzwater "Step father" (2) Michael Fink BB of Ellen Mongold

Angeline Riggleman of Faro had 2 base born children Samuel and Charles. She lived with Charles Bare and went to East Virginia and lived with a Runion. She poisoned herself.

Reuben the oldest of Pharo's children hated it so when his sister, Susan married a negro. He said it was a disgrace to the family, but George, his brother was different and said it was alright. George had red hair like Reuben.

It is said lawyer General John Roller settled to the satisfaction of the court that Addison Riggleman was a Dove, son of George Dove & Catherine Riggleman

The Riggleman place on the mountain south of Dovesville. It appears that Catherine Riggleman lived with her brother Jacob on the mountain known as the Riggleman place until she married for her son Pharo lived there and occupied the land after the death of Jacob. It was close to 1846 according to information in Deed Book page 341 Rockingham Co. which also shows that Jacob first occupied the land around 1806 and Pharoah succeeded him c 1846 after he got married in 1841 and died 1877. After this Pharo's son Addison occupied the land c 1881 when he got married until 1906 when he deeded it to his son William H. Dove. Further indication that Catherine lived on the place is the fact that when she married Daniel Moyers, her surety was Jacob Riggleman.

The 195 acres of land was never entered or patented by Jacob or his successors but was claimed solely on the grounds of long years of occupation and the absence of records confirmed this.

The deed mentioned above also shows that what it said was to prove title by the 100 years of continuous occupation.

Jacob Riggleman was a son of John I.

Pharoah Riggleman's sale

Joseph Dove	1 cow	$4.15
"	1 Heifer	3.03
"	1 horse	.52
John Chrisman	4 head sheep	.50
Joseph Dove	2 stacks hay	.50
"	1 lot oats	.25
"	1 lot straw	.01
	Total	$9.96

The name Pharoah was used as a given name in those days. There was a Pharoah Wilkins named after the Pharoah kings of Bible times. There is a Faro name in the Pendleton Co. History by Morton.

Pharoah Riggleman is said to have been a very proud stuck up man especially about his clothes. He would not wear clothes when they were thread bare or patched. Some of this has been carried down to later generations.

Marriage Book page 364 Rockingham Co Consent Note: "I Reuben Dove give consent for my daughter Margaret to marry Pharoah Riggleman. Witnesses Jacob Caplinger, Joseph Dove, Faro Riggleman, son of George Dove & Catherine Riggleman and Margaret Dove, daughter of Reuben and Catherine Dove 1/18/1841. C.N. Joseph Dove (of Aaron lived with Jemima Riggleman, sister to Catherine) made oath that Faro Riggleman is upward of 21 years to marry Margaret Dove.

Faro (X) Riggleman

Joseph Dove

Marriage ceremony performed by Samuel Allebaugh Jan 22 1841. Pharoah Riggleman to Margaret "Peggy" Dove.

Reuben Dove of Pharoah and Martin Wittig son of imigrant Ulrick Wittig enlisted in the Confederate Army at the same time, but Martin was rejected because his hearing was so bad as was told by Reuben to his grandson, Maynard Hottinger.

Conley Story

Conley, young and good looking man and 25, rich courting one of the Siever girls, made money stealing from one army and selling to the other during the Civil War. He was planning to go to California. Boasted when he was drunk that he had his money at a triple oak or three topped oak above the Siever place. (on the Will Lantz land later) but never found.

Reuben Dove who married one of the Siever girls and became the owner of the Siever place had just returned from the Civil War from South Carolina by way of Richmond in the spring of 1865 and Conley was staying at Reuben's and Siever's place. People were afraid of him and probably jealous of his getting along with one of the Siever girls.

Martin Wittig told Maynard Hottinger that he and Wash May and Jeff Whetzel went there on a hill and saw Conley sitting on the fence watching the men flailing out grain and Wittig stuck his knife in a tree for a gun rest for sighting. Wash May started to shoot him but his heart failed him saying he couldn't shoot a man in the back. Jeff Whetzel took the gun and layed down took rest on the knife and shot Conley. He was buried in the old Cemetery near the road from Caplingers to Sievers. No one ever found his money under the triple oak tree.

Another story told by Ben Turner

Conley was shot at Jacob Siever's threshing floor while Jacob May was flailing out grain. At the close of the Civil War, he was accused of being a "Yankee Spy". He courted Jacob Siever's daughter, Leannah, had a daughter by her after she had a daughter by Joe "Fist" Dove. The flail almost hit Conley's head as he fell on the threshing floor from where he was sitting on the fence. He was shot through the heart & fell dead before the shot was heard. It was said he was shot by Jeff Whetzel.

Just to be Preserved

Judith "Jude" Mook "Mauck" could be the BB daughter of either Barbara or Elizabeth Stultz, two single women who lived on the John Stultz place in the hollow below where Reuben Hottinger lived. She was born there and was spoken of as "Mook" Stultz probably a Mook: "Mauck" was her father. Their cabin was burned. Two of their three small children became frightened and ran back into the burning cabin and could not be rescued. Reuben Hottinger took Judith and raised her. She died 9/9 or 19/1938 over one hundred years old. Told to Benjamin Moyers who was assessor when he inquired about her age for census. Kate Bashore Sowder told him her age was exactly the same as hers. Kate was born 12/14/1832 which makes Judy 106 years old when she died. She stayed at George Wittig's store and her first base born child David "Dick" Mook is said to belong to George Wittig. David married Alice Shoemaker.

Jude Mook took possession of one of the old Thomas Groves houses below Dovesville in the hollow that was named after her "Mook Hollow" now known as Brush Run. The house she lived in was supposed to have been built by Thomas Groves, a wealthy land owner.

There was a Thomas Grove who had a daughter Mary b c1820 married to Jacob May b c1819 on 10/30/1839 by Jacob Bachel. This Thomas Grove was probably born c1800 and could have been the father of Thomas Grove, father of Lionel.

Tradition is that Thomas, father of Lionel was a wealth cattle buyer and stayed at the tavern in the Overly hollow and was murdered by someone for his money.

Lionel "Liona" "Jerry" Grove by Thomas & Sarah Peck born 1848 was most likely the grandson of John and Catherine Siever married 4/19/1795 who settled near Brock's Gap Rockingham Co and had land on Shoemaker River in 1806 Deed Book 3, p 277.

Thomas Grove followed Philip Sowder to the Dove settlement and built houses in the hollows near the Blue Pond called Groves and Mook Hollow on each side of the Blue Pond and river.

Some of this genealogy of the Groves may not be entirely correct. (Lewis Yankey compiler)

Alex Groves of Liona & Susan

Alex Groves lived all alone in a small cabin and spent his life fighting imaginary little people who pestered him by coming down the chimney and throwing pepper in his eyes. There were three of them, two small little devils named something like Japanese and one large one called Lord Jesus who was not so mean and often tried to correct the two smaller ones, whipping them on the roof of the cabin. Alex had a path worn around the cabin where he chased the demons with a club. Finally Alex came out to Edward Keplinger's one night stark naked and he was taken to a mental hospital in Staunton where he later died.

One day Russell May and Wade Fulk came to his cabin and beat him nearly to death and robbed him of his money. They got in jail, broke out and Russ fled to Maryland and lived with Beck Hess.

Seymour May was staying at the Fitzwater place told this tory about Liona who was drunk, rode up on a donkey and called for Seymour to come out. Seymour complied and Liona said Seymour May, if you don't mend your ways, the devil is going to ride you into the coals and then back out. Liona repeated it several times and laid whip to his donkey saying come up "Jennie". Thus ends Mook Groves and Pharoah Riggleman genealogy and stories.

Recollections by Israel "Doc" Dove, son of Harvey of his grandfather James Dove, a brother of Reuben as given to Lonzo Dove February 5, 1941.

He says James and Reuben were brothers, both rather tall and heavy men but Reuben in his old days became stooped and appeared as a short man. James died first. "Doc" does not remember of ever seeing him, but remembers Reuben as a squire and teacher. He says he himself went to school to him (Note) This would be a private school. He remembers James' wife who was his grandmother and Reuben's wife who were sisters. Reuben's wife was a very small woman, but James' wife was larger. "Doc" used to visit his step grandmother at her home later known as the Addison Dove house and he also visited Reuben.

James at first had a small log house and later built a new larger frame house NEARBY and used the old log house for a kitchen and the big house for a living room. James never lived anywhere else. "Doc" says his father, Harvey son of James, lived in the old Joe Dove log house which was moved from somewhere else. This was on the Caplinger place. Harvey had married a daughter of Jacob Caplinger. "Doc" says he was born there. Later on Joe Dove lived there with his common-law wife Jemima Riggelman. Their daughter Jane married Israel Caplinger brother to "Doc's" mother. Later Joe and Jemima moved up on Cold Spring River above William Whetzel's who had married Barbara another of Joe's daughters. Philip Kisner later lived in this log house and it became known as the Kesner house.

"Doc" says his grandmother Margaret second wife of James spent all her spare time reading. She was a great reader. He thought Reuben's wife was a great reader, too.

Reuben claimed Catherine, his wife, married 1818 was not Jacob's daughter. It is probable she was born before to Sarah Whetzel who married Jacob Dove in 1802 and was accepted as his daughter. Her father made oath for a marriage license that she was over 21 years so she had to be born before Jacob married Sarah.

For the Record

Israel Caplinger deeded the new cemetery tract known as Caplinger's Cemetery jointly to the trustees: Israel Dove of the United Brethren Church, F.A. Yankey of the German Baptist (Dunker) Church and Silas A Dove of the Lutheran Church.

Cemetery is on the hill above Caplinger chapel. To be free for all people to bury therein. Additional land has been purchased and Lewis Yankey of the Mennonite Church was appointed as another trustee.

2/17/1794 Jonathan or John Nathan Dove of George of Henry I

Probably moved to West Pennsylvania as a boy of 14 or 15. It was probably with the John Whetzel Family including Lewis Whetzel who became famous at Wheeling Creek WVA as the Indian fighter at line of Pennsylvania. John Whetzel was one of the very first settlers in the neighborhood of where Henry Dove first settled in 1771.

Whetzel County WVA was named after the famous family at the Southwest corner of PA. John and wife Rachel b 1773 d 1874 moved to Ohio Research in Lancaster PA showed that John's wife was a Chickasaw Indian adopted by the great US Scout Lewis Whetzel who had a bitter hatred of Indians.

Paul Smith said he knew of John Nathan Dove and that he was like his Uncle Henry and brother Noah where and what source that the research in Lancaster Co, PA that John Dove married a "Chicasaw Indian" adopted by a Whetzel, a US Indian Scout is not known or whether this John Dove who was the associate of Lewis Whetzel was the father of Amanda Dove. But from accounts and records this is quite likely true and from the reason John's wife had only one name "Rachel"

Lewis Whetzel's grandfather Martin Whetzel settled here in 1760 and John's grandfather Henry Dove settled in 1771 in the same locality known later as Dovesville and two of his sons married first cousins of this Lewis Whetzel. Many of the first residents here had Indian wives. It is most probable that this John Dove is the John Nathan born 2/7/1794 according to the family Bible of his father George Dove of Henry.

Lewis Whetzel with his parents and their children moved from close where John's parents lived in West Brock's Gap western part of Augusta Co, now Rockingham Co to the southwest corner of PA in the area of what is Wheeling Creek now WVA near the County of Whetzel named after this family.

It seems difficult to believe that Lewis Whetzel raised an Indian girl as a daughter since it is said he had a bitter hatred for Indians. However there is a story that he saved a child from an Indian massacre so maybe this was "Rachel" that John Dove married.

Jacob Dove called son of George b 1813 was most certainly one of the twins of Aaron Dove and Polly Stultz that Goerge Dove, Aaron's father had adopted as a base child Court case in February 1813 when the two children are said to be 4 or 5 years old. They would have been 1808-9 instead of 1813 when George adopted them because Aaron had married woman Sally Baker.

The two children Jacob and Mary married in Pendleton Co. W.VA

The reason these twins were taken care of and represented in court by their grandfather George Dove Esq. in the February 18 trial was because the father of the baseborn twins was then in military service as Captain Aaron Dove in the War of 1812 and was already married in 1808 to another woman.

Then the mother of the twins was already married by 1813 to John Showalter. The mother's father was for reasons unknown a bitter enemy of the first Dove families, George and Fredrick especially and at one time falsely had them for retailing liquor in their store without a license which in Court was proved false. So it may be that Stultz set in motion the court action against Aaron Dove for bastardy and George Dove Esq wanted to do the right thing, agreed to pay fines and take future care of these twins which came to be known in Pendleton Co as children of George Dove of Dovesville.

Nimrod Dove moved to WVA during Civil War

1830 Evaline "Eps" Dove Born to his wife after they had separated. Not married. She was colored. One of Whetzel's slaves said to be her father. She had a child which died in infancy.

Henry Dove Sr died in 1801 survived by his widow and she and two of her sons, Fredrick & Jacob kept the home fires burning. In 1802 the youngest son, Jacob got married to Sarah Whetzel to whom he had several children from 5 to 7 years old. Fredrick married a sister of Jacob's wife in 1804.

Some time thereafter Jacob built a small house around the hill above the old Dove home place and Fredrick had the homeplace to himself and his small family namely Dianna, Rebecca, and Aaron b 1804-1809. Jacob's family increased from 3 to 9 during the next 16 years. The oldest, Nimrod, born around 1794?. Known later as Nimrod Sr to distinguish him from George's son Nimrod born 1802. Then came Absolom, Anne, Abel, Margaret, Susan "Susie" and Sarah b 1818 and about 12 years later Jacob's wife had Eveline "Eps". Jacob denied her and left Sarah saying that he was not her father saying that he had not been near his wife for years. "Eps" was partly colored. It was said her father was one of Whetzel's slaves who took a stallion around for horse breeding purposes. Nine months later Sarah gave birth to "Eps".

"Eps" lived with her sister Ann in a small house when Jacob spent his last days after he deeded his interest in the old Dove lands to his son Abel.

Jacob Dove unlike his brothers Fredrick and George was a very religious man which is not the same thing as a morally upright man. His son, Abel, likewise was a strict man in the faith and would not allow his own sister's funeral preached in his church because she had joined another denomination.

Jacob Dove was a preacher in the old "United Brethren Society" in 1824. Tradition tells of his "lapses" into drunkenness and his repeated promises not to do so again. His son Abel became a strenuous preacher in the Lutheran faith and it is possible on that account that his father could not live in the same house but stayed and died in the little house with his unmarried daughters, Anne & "Eps".

Fredrick and George were partners in the old Dove Home place. It was Fredrick & George who of their own choice were partners in acquiring new lands and in running the store and mill and tavern business. A merchandise account of the Michael Baker estate to the firm of George and Fredrick Dove in the amount of $4.20 besides the account to the individuals George Dove and Fredrick Dove and Jacob Dove. The old Baker store account copied in the Court settlement of the Estate is a valuable reference to the residents of the Brock Gap section of that time. This Baker account contains one entry in the amount of $29.60 to the firm of Dove and Shoemaker and also to the individual "Samuel Shoemaker". Now Samuel Shoemaker owned the Mine Mountain place later known as the Overly store and tavern a short distance above the Dove place not far from the forks of Bennett's Run.

Shoemaker bought the place from Martin Whetzel in 1793 and sold it to John Baker in 1805 brother-in-law to the Dove brothers.

The Dove in the Dove and Shoemaker store of 1804 was probably Jacob Dove who got married in 1802 and built a house on the upper part of the Dove land near the Mine Mountain tavern above the forks of Bennett's Run on the fork later known as Overly Run. This creek joins the main run.

The other two brothers George & Fredrick were partners at the same time in the old Dove store and mill so this leaves Jacob to be the partner with Shoemaker in the other store. After first tracing the history of the original Dove Mill, store & tavern, we have seen that Henry Dove Sr started the store, mill & tavern during the Revolutionary War and after his death, it was continued by his sons under the name of George & Fredrick in 1804 Baker account.

The 1805 & 1806 property tax book gives the names of those who were to obtain licences to run a merchandise store and among them is George Dove. The assessor was Reuben Harrison and he noted that the Dove store had not yet obtained the license and marked out the name George Dove and reported same to the Court October 22, 1806. Reuben Harrison for use of Commonwealth, vs. Dove upon a notice to fine him for retailing goods of foreign manufacture without a license. The said defendant appeared in court and confessed a notice of this matter and being heard by his attorney, it is ordered that the prosecution be disrupted at the said defendant's cost, he having paid to the Sheriff 23 pounds the amount for the tax for his retail store until the first day of next May which in order to be certified to the Auditor of public accounts (Minit Book)

At this time George Dove was among the justices of the Court, but on this date owing to his being the defendant he is marked "absent" from the justices sitting in court that day.

Here it is shown that George Dove was head of a "retail store" where he sold goods of a foreign manufacture. In connection with the store, Doves ran a tavern where meals loding and liquors were sold and horse provender as in Revolutionary days by the founder, Henry Dove, Sr. On May 19, 1813 on the motion of George Dove, it is ordered that a license be granted to him to keep a tavern at his house in the County until the first of May next he having paid to the clerk $16.75.

In obtaining a license to keep a tavern or house of entertainment as they were often called, bond had to be given to show that the license was of good character not addicted to drunkenness or gaming and that he will keep an orderly and useful house of entertainment.

In those days the Court fixed the price to be charged in a tavern for the protection of the consumer public showing that our "New Deal" price control is not a new or untried thing in our United States.

Here are the legal rates for taverns or ordinaries according to the Minits Book entry of April 20, 1814.

Dinners	42¢	Madgeri Wine	QT	$1.50
Breakfast	34¢	Port Wine	QT	1.00

Since the Dove tavern was also a store and mill, it might be interesting here to quote some store prices of this time. Here are some items copied from an 1820 store day book of Franklin, WVA

Beef	4¢ pound	Butter	3¢ pound
Ginseng	33¢ pound	Tea	$5.00 pound

It appears that a new comer in the Dove neighborhood namely Philip Stultz disapproved of liquor selling & took advantage of a lapse in license in the year 1813 to stop the sale of liquor at the Dove store on April 27, 1813. The suit was instituted by Philip Stultz vs George Dove and continued on July 21-22 1814 Court vs George Dove for retailing it on information of Stultz and concluded on April 29, 1815 Court vs Dove for retailing liquor without a license ruled against the prosecutor.

In 1818 Fredrick Dove became head of the Dove and Jacob Custer took control of the Mine Mountain tavern. In 1811 Custer lived on the 43 acre James Bronks place adjoining the 176 acre Mine Mountain. On May 21, 1818 on the motion of Fredrick Dove and Jacob Custer and they having paid $4.50 each, it is ordered that a license be granted each of them to keep a private entertainment at their respective houses until the first of May 1819.

In the 1825 and 1828 road records, the Dove Mill is still known under the name of Fredrick Dove and Co. When the new road started from Fredrick Dove lane. George Dove still owned half interest in the Mill property until 1829 after the death of his son George Jr he deeded his interest to his son Nimrod, Sr. The Minit Book references to the new road is on date December 5, 1825 on the petition of Jacob Lantz, Sr, etc. for a view of a way for a road leading from Frederick Dove's Mill & Co on the south fork of the Shenandoah River in Brock's Gap passing through the land of the said Dove also land of George Dove and through the different plantations on said river and on date March 3, 1828 a view and report of a way for a road leading from the mouth of Fredrick's Dove's lane and through the said lane and plantations as set forth in said report which road is ordered to be established. The record from George Dove to Nimrod Dove is fragmentary but enough survives to show that it was a mill property deed as a gift and the usual consideration of one dollar from George Dove, Sr to his son Nimrod, Sr and at this time George was a widower since his wife's name did not appear on the deed.

It appears this George's son George Jr about this time c 1820 married a daughter of Fredrick, Mahala Dove, and that George Jr became a partner with Fredrick in the store and mill and lived together in the old Dove home while George Sr was engaged in political office which was Sheriff of Rockingham Co.

It could have not been George Jr who was licensed to run this tavern because it is too well established that this younger George was not a "man of good character" but was addicted to drunkenness and gaming (gambling) contrary to the license rules though in 18__ this George Dove Jr was appointed deputy Sheriff under his father who was high Sheriff at this time.

C Dove to the trustees Josiah Souder, J Luther Wittig, and Cyrus Dove September 15, 1900(Deed Book 64 p 529) These two were sons of Abel Dove founder of this Lutheran Church. This church now stands at the foot of the hill which today is a beautiful brick structure quite a contrast from the first one built of logs.

- 2/17/1765 Henry Dove of Hendrick Henry Tdoup (Died 5/8/1856) & Mary Magdaline Aldarfer Aldaffer of Anthony (1/1/1775) born on a ship just as it came into port in New York harbor. Her parents settled near Scotts Ford area close to Port Republic VA close to Mathias Doubt Doves' place. Mathias and Henrick came to Rockingham in 1771. Henry & Magdaline were married 7/24/1793. Surety William (X) Trobaugh. Mrs Cordella Dove Crist of Canal Winchester Ohio says Hendrick Doup (Dove) Sr first landed at New York and settled in Rockingham Co VA. This tradition has been handed down through the family. Magdaline died 8/28/1817.

Henry Dove Sr came to America through the port of New York then to Pennsylvania and on to Loudoun Co VA. From there to Brocks Gap and settled on the headwaters of the north fork of the Shenandoah River.

Mathias "Doubt" Dove probably his brother, settled at Scott's Ford near Port Republic. Anthony Aldafer probably came over on the same ship and settled close to Mathias Doubt. Probably some of Henry Sr's children were born in Germany.

It seems from the close association Henry Jr went to East Rockingham and married Magdaline Aldafer who was born on a ship one hour out of New York harbor.

Henry Dove of Henry Sr married Magdaline Aldafer 7/24/1793 and moved to Fairfield Ohio.

This tradition has been handed down through the Henry Dove families. In 1827 a canal was being built and Henry Dove owned a wheat field through which the canal was to pass. He threatened to bring suit against the state for damages to the crop but was prevailed upon to lay out a town on the canal bank instead. Accordingly on 11/5/1828, the plot for the town was laid out and recorded in Lancaster Ohio and was named Winchester from the fact that Winchester Virginia was the closest business town to the Dove Settlement in Rockingham. In 1841 a post office was established at Winchester. The post office department added the prefix "Canal" There were five other Winchesters already in Ohio.

Fredrick Dove of Henry Dove I was born 3/17/1762 and was one of the three brothers George, Fredrick and Jacob and remembered in all traditions by the Dove families of Dovesville that they descended from them.

Traditions at Dovesville related by the oldest people have it that Fredrick Dove always spoke in the German tongue and was called by the German name "Fritz". This means the three brothers with their father came from Germany to America and finally settled at a place in Brock's Gap later known as Dovesville and the name originally pronounced "Tdoupt". It has been found that the example of Fredrick's handwriting was invariably in a fine straight German script and never in English but that his brother George always wrote in good English. Their brother, Jacob, wrote in a poor mongrel German English syle and appears to have spoken in English with a strong German accent.

There was another Henry who moved away when he was a young man and he wrote in a fine German handwrite and there were also two sisters who moved away from Dovesville before the next generation was old enough to remember and so the local traditions remember nothing whatsoever about the early Doves but only about the three brothers and their father. Not much is known about Fredrick, but unlike his brothers had a very small family and they moved away from Dovesville. The first child of Fredrick appears to be Dianna born around 1804 according to the 1850 Census. She was married by "commonlaw" to Nimrod Dove, son of George and their first child was Aaron Dove, Jr born 1820 accordint to 1850 Census. There is no marriage record neither bond or minister's return of Nimrod and Dianna. They had in all nine children. The last born about 1845. Nimrod died near Broadway VA in 1851 and his widow Dianna and two youngest daughters moved a few years later to live with her brother Aaron's son, George "wash" Dove in Tennessee. Nimrod like his brother George and others of that parentic lineage had a morality of life not dependent upon rituals and ceremonials of any church or dogmatic religious law.

Nimrod never joined any church though his widow a few weeks later after his death was baptized into the Dunker Church by Elder John Kline. Nimrod's brother, Reuben, did not join until he was a very old man when he was baptized into the Dunker Church around 1870 in the Blue Hole pond near Dovesville.

Marriage by mutual consent of the parties concerned without the hand of a clergyman was perfectly legal in the new United States REpublic then recently founded by George Washington who insisted upon the absolute separation of Church and State and that this government and its laws were in no sense founded on any particular religion. Nimrod's son Dr. Alpheus Dove though he was visited by Elder John Kline did not join any church. Neither did Nimrod's father-in-law, Fredrick Dove whose funeral was attended by Elder John Kline who indicated he was not a member of any church. However Jacob Dove, youngest brother of George & Fredrick, was a preacher in the "Society" of the United Brethren in Christ" as early as 1824 and Jacob's son, Abel was one of the founders of the Dovesville Lutheran Church.

Fredrick Dove lived on the original Dove homestead according to the traditions supported by recorded historical references. It is said he owned a mill & store. There is a story about Fredrick handed down by several sources. It concerns a high steep slate bank along the river at the foot of the mountain out from the old Henry Dove home known as the Fritz Rock. Fredrick "Fritz" Dove had a man dragging saw logs out of the mountain on a block. The sled pulled by two horses and taken to the edge of the cliff and rolled down to the river where they were sawed into boards. On one occasion, Fritz told his driver that he was not pulling the logs close enough to the ledge and Fritz reipped out an oath in German, grabbed the reins to show how it should be done and drove too close to the edge. The log slid pulling the sled over and dragging the horses down over the rocks and Fritz with them, killing one of the horses and breaking Fritz's leg hence the name "Fritz Rock" was given to the place.

Fredrick Dove married Susanna Whetzel daughter of Henry Whetzel. The marriage bond dated 11/19/1804, the surety being Martin Whetzel brother of the bride and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Ferdanand Lear on 11/20/1805 according to minister's return records as entered in the return book where the name Fredrick was miscopied by the clerk as "Treanch" Dove to Susanna Whetzel. Since Fredrick Dove lived on the original Dove homestead until it passed out of the hands of the Dove Family, it will be proper to consider here the history of the Henry Dove Estate.

When Henry Dove died in 1801, he left a will in which all of his real estate was parcelled between his sons George on one hand and Fredrick & Jacob on the other hand. The record of this will was lost when the County records were burned during the Civil War but reference is made to the will and its conditions in later deeds. At the time of Henry Dove's death neither Fredrick or Jacob were yet married, but George had been married many years hence Fredrick and Jacob were given the homeplace jointly and undivided while George was given full possession of the other land adjoining his tract where he lived but the 12 acre mill lot part of the home tract was willed jointly to all three boys - George, Fredrick & Jacob.

It appears from reference in certain data that the will named also "other" heirs of Henry Dove meaning , of course, Henry Dove, Jr & Charlotte Dove Scott and Mary Magdaline Dove BAKER. But since none of the real estate even came into the hands of these others but to the three brothers, it is evident that the other heirs to the estate received their share in money to be paid by the three who received the land as was usually the custom in those days. The heir, Henry Dove, Jr already had land near Port Republic and shortly after his father's death, Henry Dove and his sister, Charlotte Scott moved west. Mary Magdaline Baker remained a few years near Dovesville and then moved outside of the "Gap" and settled at the place which became known as "Baker's Mill"

Fredrick Dove died at the old home place 6/4/1849 at the age of 87 years and the funeral was attended by Elder John Kline who notes in his diary (Monday 6/4/1849) attended the burial of Fredrick Dove in the Gap age 87 years 2 months & 17 days Stay at Dove's tonight) About a year later his widow Susanna Whetzel Dove born March c 15 1762 at the age of 76 died in May of 1850 from Paralysis. Since Fredrick before his death had disposed of all of his lands and interests in lands with the exception of a 63 acre tract on Big Lick. A survey claimed by him and George, but never formally acquired by patent there was no estate to be settled and his son Aaron, Jr was living temporarily on the old Dove homeplace then owned by his father-in-law Philip Sowder.

After Fredrick and Susanna died Aaron stayed there about 8 years longer and in the 1850 census is assessed with the undivided and undisposed 63 acre survey which was neglected by George and his heirs in 1831 and left unsold by Fredrick in 1849. Later on George's son Reuben, laid claim to about half of this survey and when Aaron Jr left for Tennessee around 1858, he discarded his father's half and it was later resurveyed and patented by Reuben's sons William and John. Thus ends the Dovesville estate of Fredrick Dove.

In 1836 Fredrick's daughter Rebecca Dove was married to Nathaniel Mongold. The marriage bond was dated 5/28/1836 and the surety was her brother Aaron, Jr and the consent notes from Fredrick Dove was written by the hand of Aaron Dove, Jr and witnessed by him and his wife Elizabeth "I hereby declare to the Clerk of Rockingham Co that I am willing that the said Clerk grant unto Nathaniel Mongold a marriage license for the purpose of celebrating the rite of matrimony between my daughter Rebecca and said Nathaniel Mongold" Given under my hand this the 23 day of May 1836. Fredrick Dove witnessed by Aaron Dove, Jr & Elizabeth(X) Sowder Dove. The bond was signed by Nathaniel Mongold and counter signed by Aaron Dove, Jr and the bond was sealed and dated this 23 of May 1836 in the 60th year of the Commonwealth. Whereas a marriage is shortly intended between Nathaniel Mongold and Rebecca Dove daughter of Fredrick Dove.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Lemuel Allenbaugh about six weeks later 7/3/1836 according to his report to the County Clerk of Rockingham Co., VA."This is to certify that I Lemuel Allenbaugh legally authorized minister of the gospel celebrated the rites of matrimony between Nathaniel Mongold and Rebecca Dove."

Aaron Dove, Jr Family(Copied from genealogy compiled by Lonzo Dove)
Aaron Dove, sone of Fredrick Dove was born 2/1/1809 at Dovesville in Brock's Gap and died 4/26/1896 aged 87 at his home in the Pleasant Valley Community near Jonesboro, Washington Co., Tennessee and is buried in the Keebler Cemetery there. He is called Junior to distinguish him from Aaron Dove, Sr., the son of George.

He married Elizabeth Sowder daughter of Philip Sowder of Crab Run near Dovesville. She was born 9/7/1813 and died 11/9/1898 and is buried beside her husband in Tenn. Their tombstones give their births and deaths. These dates are also given in the old Family Bible which gives Aaron's father and mother as Fredrick Dove and Susanna Whetzel and Elizabeth's parents as Philip & Eva Fulk Sowder.

The consent notes for the marriage was written by Nimrod Dove of George and witnessed by him and Abraham Zirk of Zirk's Run near Dovesville 7/21/1831 on which date also the bond was drawn and the ceremony was 7/24/1831 by the Rev Ambrose Henkel (The Lutheran preacher from New Market) according to the family Bible record and the Minister's Return record.

The Souder Family was Lutheran from Loudoun Co VA who came to Brock's Gap in 1809 and Philip settled near Dovesville in 1827. Abraham Zirk was surety to the marriage bond between Elizabeth Sowder and Aaron Dove Jr.

The "Nimrod Dove of George" had married Dianna Dove sister of this Aaron Dove Jr a few years before 1826.

Aaron Dove, Jr lived in the home with his father Fredrick (The original Dove homeplace) and in 1849 his father Fredrick died and was buried 6/4/1849 age 87 years 2 mo, 17 days according to the diary of Elder John Kline of Broadway, VA who attended the funeral. And just a year later Aaron's mother died in May 1850 of Paralysis at the age of 76 according to the account in the 1850 Census but before they died, Fredrick and his brother Jacob as coowners sold the home place to Philip Sowder, Aaron's father-in-law in 1845 who let Aaron live there until he moved to Tennessee.

In 1836 Aaron Dove Jr and his wife Elizabeth were witnesses to a consent note from Fredrick Dove for his daughter Rebecca, sister to Aaron to be married to Nathaniel Mongold. Aaron was surety to the marriage bond and in 1837 Aaron Dove Jr and Nathaniel Mongold went security on a bond for Fredrick Dove in the amount of $1,690 and in 1848 Aaron Dove Jr & Joseph Dove, son of Aaron Dove, Sr were witnesses to the deed of land from Fredrick Dove to Ulrick Wittig (Deed Book 20, p 410) according to the 1849 property list "Aaron Dove of F" (Meaning Fredrick) had in his home two tithables over 16 - himself and his older son Fredrick Washington "Wash" Dove and had also one horse and in the 1850 Census Aaron Dove has 63 acres of his own 18 acres improved, 45 acres unimproved value $380, 1 horse, 3 milk cows 7 cattle, 14 sheep, 11 swine, 70 bushels of wheat, 100 bushel Indian Corn, 40 lbs. wool 2 bushel beans, 70 bushels Irish potatoes, 16 bushels Buckwheat, 100 lbs. of butter during the year, 1 ton hay, 20 lbs flax, 7 lbs flaxseed, 120 lbs maple sugar and five gallons molasses. The other Aaron Dove Sr is no longer living in 1850, having died 10/18/1848 and is buried in the Dove Cemetery.

Traditions persist in locating "Little Aaron Dove" at the old homeplace until he moved to Tennessee when Josiah Sowder moved into the Dove house. Josiah was a son of Philip and brother to Aaron's wife. The 63 acres owned by Aaron Dove was located in the mouth of Lick Hollow, but Aaron had no absolute right to it since it was claimed by his father Fredrick and Fredrick's brother George Dove jointly, but never formally patented and half of it was later occupied by Beuben Dove, son of George and the other half was left waste and later taken up by Reuben's sons William and John.

The 1850 Census lists Philip Sowder's land as 70 acres valued at $3,352 and having 5 horses, 6 cows, 20 hogs, 25 tons of hay according to the 1850 Census page 122, the family of Aaron Dove, Jr was Aaron Dove, Jr (farmer) age 41, his wife Elizabeth, age 37, Fredrick W Dove laborer age 19, Catherine Dove, age 17, Philip Dove, age 14, Aaron Dove age 10, Josiah P Dove, age 8, Moses Dove, age 6. All children listed as going to school. The entire family according to the family Bible record copied for me in 1941 by Aaron E Dove of Bristol Tennessee, son of Fredrick Washington Dove, son of Aaron Dove, Jr, son of Fredrick Dove is as follows Aaron Dove, son of Frederick and Susanne born 2/1/1809 m 7/24/1831 wife Elizabeth Sowder, daughter of Philip and Eva Fulk born 9/7/1813 ceremony by Ambrose Henkel.

Their Children

4/29/1831	Fredrick Washington "Wash" Dove

11/29/1834	Philip Dove
10/24/1836	Elizabeth Eva Dove (Died 12/15/1838)
6/22/1838	Aaron Dove (Not known by the family in Tennessee, so probably died in Virginia before they moved to Tennessee in 1858, but after the 1850 Census)
6/2/1840	Joseph P Dove
4/15/1842	Mary Susan Dove (Died 9/26/1845)
5/8/1846	Lucinda Virginia Dove (not listed in 1850 Census so presumed dead)

8/7/1845 Levi Moses Dove
 11/28/1850 Jacob Columbus Dove
 10/4/1853 Clara E Dove
 12/15/1856 Sarah Margaret Dove

Between the year 1850 and 1858 "Wash" Dove as he was known at the homeplace, the oldest child of Aaron Jr moved to Jonesboro Tennessee, to work as a miller for Chrisley Bashore. "WASH" no doubt learned the miller trade in the old Dove mill on the homeplace where his father lived. The mill, owned by Nimrod Dove in 1829 but in 1848 bought by Ulrick Wittig who came from Hesse Germany and settled in the Dovesville neighborhood and rose from poverty to riches in a few years. (Reverend George Dove of Hotchkiss Colorado says his father William R Dove remembers "Wash" Dove going to school at Dovesville and he was too lively to take much interest in school subjects and that Wash then stayed at the home of Eps & Ann Dove, his father's cousins.

On April 30, 1855 Fredrick Washington Dove married Margaret Bashore, a daughter of Chrisley Bashore at her home in Tennessee and on the same day and same place her sister Anne Bashore was married to Alpheus Dove son of Nimrod. It seems that Alpheus Dove whose mother Dianna was a sister to "Wash" Dove's father Aaron Dove went with "Wash" to Tennessee and settled in Jonesboro after the death of Alpheus father, Nimrod, in 1851 near Broadway, VA and by 1860 Alpheus was a practicing physician in the town of Jonesboro. What led to their migration to Tennessee seems to me was the fact that a number of the Bashores family had settled near Dovesville on Crab Run and there on 12/30/1850, John Bashore married Mary Sowder, a daughter of Philip Sowder, a sister of Wash Dove's mother. Witness to the bond was Joseph Bashore. The name Bashore (Basore) is spelled variously. Elder John Kline in speaking of both. These Dovesville & Lost River families and those of Jonesboro Tennessee spelled them alike "Bashores". On March 1, 1840, Conrad Bashore married Sussannah Whetzel daughter of Martin Whetzel Jr and Catherine Shaver of the Dovesville neighborhood according to the Elder Kline diary. In May 1860 "Brother Conrad Bashore lived near Dr Alpheus Dove at Jonesboro Tennessee and in 1862 John Bashore lived on Lost River near Rev. Selestine Whitmer." He had married a sister to Conrad Bashore's wife, Hannah Whetzel in 1862. Earlier in 1844 Elder Kline visited "Brother Jacob Bashore in Miami County, Ohio near Dayton and in 1860 at Jonesboro Tennessee Kline visited Brother Benjamin Bashore's, Peter Bashore" and "Brother Michael Bashore". These were all young "Brethren preachers" near the Valley meeting house where the Dunkers had their annual meeting. On the same trip Elder Kline visited Dr. Alpheus Dove in Jonesboro (Kline's Diary 5/14-29/1860) From information supplied by the Wash Dove family in 1941, the children of Christly Bashore were Margaret Bashore who married Frederick Washington "Wash" Dove (2) Annie Bashore married Dr Alpheus Dove (3) & (4) Isaac and John Bashore were their brothers. The aunts and uncles of Christly also brothers and sisters were Henry Martin, Martin, Joseph, John, Isaac, Michael, Benjamin, Peter, Jacob, Barbara & Annie. She married Henry Garst. Wash Dove's father-in-law, Christley Bashore, had many books in German. They claim that the Bashores came from Copenhagen Denmark.

Incidentally in 1890 in Rockingham Co, VA at Good's Mill, Mollie Rodeffer was married to Michael H Bashore age 26 son of Michael and Sarah M Baker of Washington Co Tennessee (Marriage book) After the Civil War a Basore family came with Philip Pugh from Moorefield near Lost River to Broadway and settled there led by John Wesley Bashore born 1836 died 1918 and his father Michael Bashore born 1808 died 1881 buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery in Broadway. This John was mayor of Broadway 1885-1890 and his residence is well known just across the Linville Creek bridge from the main town. He was also a merchant having a store in front of the old Williams house where the present Rhodes auto Service station stands. It is marked on the 1891 Broadway plot as Basore and Shearer dealers in General Merchandise, shingles, lumber, salt lime, etc. Basore was also a partner in the firm Altizer Basore and Company Real Estate Agents and stock brokers Broadway, VA, Mineral lands, timber lands, city and county property, etc. A picture of the Merchantile house (a fine brick building) is shown in the 1891 "Prospectus" of the town of Broadway and also of his residence near that of Dr. Winfield on the bank of Linville Creek and on the 1885 Atlas Map of Rockingham Co., there is marked the "Basore and Hoover" Mineral lands on Mine Mountain and the "Basore and Hoover" Shingle Mill on Mongold Hollow both near Philip Sowders place near Dovesville in Brock's Gap. The Hoover was "Big George Hoover" of Broadway.

Philip Souder's son Josiah married Kate Basore as his second wife, his first wife having been Elizabeth Dove, daughter of James. There is no doubt that Wash Dove and his cousin Alpheus Dove got acquainted with the Basores in Tennessee through the Basores at Dovesville and Lost River and Moorefield. Alpheus Dove later settled at Brookville Ohio near Dayton and there became a famous physician. Brookville is only about 5 miles south of Miami Co where Jacob Bashore lived - probably an uncle to Alpheus' wife.

On September 20, 1857 Catherine Dove age 21 daughter of Aaron Dove, Jr and Elizabeth was married to Daniel Moyer a farmer aged 25, son of Palser and Mary Whetzel of Hardy Co WVA. The ceremony was performed at the head of Lost River by the Rev Sebastian Whetmer, a minister of the Gospel legally authorized to solemnize marriages (Minister's Returns). Within the next year or two 1858-59 Aaron Dove and his entire family including his daughter recently married to Moyer moved to Tennessee near the home of his son Wash Dove and at the same time, it seems Aaron's sister Dianna, widow of Nimrod Dove, Jr, near Broadway having been deprived of house and home in 1857 by Samuel Cootes in the collection of debts left by her husband's untimely death in 1851 likely took her two youngest daughters and followed into Tennessee where her son Alpheus Dove lived where she spent her last days in the home of Wash Dove who seems to have become most prosperous from the start. At or about the same time Dianna's son Aaron Dove already married near Broadway moved to Southern Missouri. In Tennessee, - Dianna's two daughters grew up and married. Milcena married Martin Bigless and Rebecca married Nathan Watson and they settled near Jonesboro where also Aaron's daughter, Catherine Moyers settled. Dianna's older daughters Frances and Mary Ann stayed near Broadway with some neighbors and later married there and the youngest sister, Rebecca Watson occasionally came up from Tennessee to visit Mary Ann according to the report by the Wash Dove family.

The family of Moyers were not well known to the Wash Dove's but the only living member. The youngest son James Moyer is said to live at Erwin or Unicoi Tennessee about 10 miles southeast of the Dove home, the other children being dead.

Aaron Dove settled near Wash Dove on an adjoining farm in Pleasant Valley a few miles from Jonesboro where his younger children grew up. Their son Philip was not heard of after the Civil War and Philip's brother Aaron seems to be unknown to the rest of the family still living, probably died in Virginia before they moved to Tenn.

Joseph Dove lived near Jonesboro and had the following children

Lizzie or Maggie who married a Dillon

Jacob Dove living in Virginia at Big Stone Gap about 50 miles from Jonesboro

Levi Moses Dove of Aaron moved to Rockwell Texas where his several children live. Jacob Dove of Aaron lived at Jonesboro where his son now lives on Route 9 and two of Jacob's sons moved west. Jacob died in the 1930's. Clara Dove married a Dulaney and their two children were Elmer Dulaney of Jonesboro and Edith Dulaney who married Remer A. Fane and now lives at 225 Spring Street Jonesboro. Clara Dove Delaney died around 1920. And Aaron's youngest daughter apparently was never married. She appears in a photograph with her father and mother. She was born in VA shortly before they moved to Tennessee according to Mary Sherman.

Aaron Dove was fond of hunting, and fishing and his grandson Aaron E Dove, son of Wash told me that he remembers visiting his Grandfather Aaron and together they would go fishing. On Wash Dove's farm was a railroad station known as the "Dove Depot" still marked "Dove" on Route 81, also 2½ miles SE of Jonesboro.

When Aaron's sister, Dianna, was left over her head near Broadway by Samuel Cootes, the wealthy merchant and politician, she did not go to her son, Alpheus Dove, in Tennessee because about this time, March 1857, his house and all his possessions were destroyed by fire leaving him unable to receive his mother and two sisters and having no means to return to Rockingham County concerning $8.68 which the wealthy Samuel Cootes still demanded from the Nimrod Dove estate though that estate was fully settled in Court in 1853 when Alpheus was last in Rockingham and had to borrow $10.00 from a neighbor JJ Bowman to pay the Co. Clerk. In a letter from Alpheus Dove to John Showalter 1857. He writes "If Mr Cootes can show that I should pay another man's debts poor as I am I would sell the clothes off my back to pay him that he might die in peace.

Another reason Alpheus could not well care for his mother and sisters was that he was obliged to move back and forth according to the 1857 letter he had just completed a trip to Cincinnati Ohio and the Wash Dove family reported that he made a trip to the Old Country to Russia became a military officer. This was I suppose in preparation for his profession as a medical doctor for by 1860 Alpheus Dove was established in the town as a practicing physician according to Elder John Kline. Dr Alpheus Dove moved from Jonesboro to Brookville, Ohio and settled there about 10 miles west from Dayton and 50 miles north of Cincinnati. Therefore Dianna Dove stayed with Aaron's son Wash. Her brother who was already settled and prospering and became a preacher of the Dunker Church in 1861.

However after his early difficulties and misfortunes beginning with his father's untimely death in Virginia, Dr Alpheus Dove in later years won his just reward in wealth and fame.

Aaron Dove's home was near the Pleasant Valley Church where in 1860 the Dunkers held their Annual Meeting attended by Elder John Kline of Broadway, VA who visited several of the Bashores living there and also visited Alpheus Dove in the town of Jonesboro but did not mention Aaron Dove or his son Wash who, of course, was a new comer there and not yet prominent in the Dunker Church while Elder Kline had himself baptized Dianna Dove at the Linville Creek Church shortly after the death of her husband Nimrod Dove in 1851 and also Kline had an interest in medical matters, hence took an interest in Nimrod's son, Alpheus.

Aaron's oldest son Fredrick Washington Dove married into the Dunker family of Bashores and worked in Bashore's Mill on the Watoga River which was washed away in the "Big Flood". This river runs 10 or 12 miles north of Jonesboro and on May 1, 1858 Wash and his wife were baptized into the Dunker Church at Knob Creek and a year after the Annual Meeting Wash was elected and ordained to the ministry in the Pleasant Valley Church on 9/14/1861 and when Elder John Kline was murdered at Cedar Run near his home during the Civil War, Preacher Wash Dove became as famous a missionary over the several states as Kline had been before him and Kline never got to know the rising fame of "Preacher Dove" who carried on where Kline left off. He preached over Tennessee, North Carolina, Missouri and up in Virginia occasionally returning to Brock's Gap and preaching in the Crab Run Dunker Church. He became Elder of the Church and was known far and wide as Elder FW Dove, but to old home acquaintances he was also called Preacher Wash Dove. My father George L Dove remembers hearing him preach on his visits to Brocks Gap in 1895.

David Acker a prominent man near Broadway visited his relatives in Northern Missouri, went to church and upon approaching heard a familiar voice preaching inside and he remarked "that sounds like Preacher Wash Dove" and some one asked how he knew Dove and Acker said he remembered Dove on his visits to Brock's Gap many years before where Dove's people spring from and this was in fact Elder Wash Dove preaching a revival meeting in Northern Missouri and the people there said Doven then lived in Southern Missouri. This was told to me personally by Mr Acker in 1940 and in fact the whole family of Wash Dove did move from Tennessee to Cabool Missouri on 9/6/1892.

On one of his trips to Brock's Gap in 1877, he combined missionary work with business. As Elder John Kline before him did for himself and for others on this trip Dove came as attorney for his father Aaron Dove in the settling of the estate of Philip Sowder since Aaron by his wife was one of the Sowder heirs. The power of attorney drawn up at Washington County, April 16, 1877 states that Aaron Dove and Elizabeth formerly Elizabeth Sowder "Thereby appoint" FW Dove as lawful attorney to execute papers for them as heirs at law of Philip Sowder of Rockingham County, VA deceased now in course of administration." The settlement deed dated May 7, 1877 disposes of the lands not previously disposed of during his lifetime and the heirs named. There are Josiah Sowder and wife Catherine of Rockingham Co., John May and wife Catherine of Grant Co, WVA, John Bashore & wife Mary of Grant Co, WVA, Jacob Sowder and wife Evaline of Rockingham CO VA, Aaron Dove and wife Elizabeth, lately of Rockingham Co, VA but now of Washington Co Tennessee whose act by power of attorney given to their son Fredrick Washington Dove of the last mentioned county and state (Deed Book 17 p 469)

Five years after Wash moved to Missouri, his father Aaron died in Tennessee, April 21, 1896 and two years later his mother died November 9, 1898 buried in the Keebler Cemetery near Jonesboro. Tombstones there give their births and deaths.

The entire family of Wash Dove excepting John A Dove moved and settled at Cabool Missouri. John A. settled at Cloverdale, VA where he married Lula Huff.

Elder Fredrick Washington Dove died at his home at Cabool Missouri 4/20/1909 the day after his birthday and the date of his wedding and two days before his baptismal date and in 1915 his wife died both buried in the Greenwood Cemetery there. Their youngest son took over the home when the father died and Jacob and his brother George W were partners in the merchantile business in the city there in 1915 and at that time their older brother, a Noah Dove was mayor of Cabool City. A brief sketch of the children of Elder Wash Dove follows from the oldest to the youngest.

(1) Mary E Dove b 1856 married WM Sherman lived in Empire Prairie in Missouri until after 1915 but in 1940 was living in Rea Missouri with his daughter Margaret Sherman b 1880. They had 12 children of whom 10 are living in 1941. She has the old family Bible and photographs and from her through her younger brother Aaron E Dove I obtained much of the information about the Aaron and Alpheus Dove families. Margaret Sherman last saw her great grandfather in 1892.

(2) Lucinda Virginia Dove married JK Hilbert lived in Cabool, MO until after 1909 and by 1915 was living in Proberta California. They had no children and died before 1941.

(3) A Noah Dove spent his entire life in Cabool Missouri where he was mayor around 1915. He had 5 sons and daughter Eve. Some live in Missouri and some in Kansas. He is no longer living 1941.

(4) Rev John A Dove married Lula Huff lived at Cloverdale, VA where he died in 1934. He was a Dunker preacher now known as "Church of the Brethren" which has a church sponsored College at Bridgewater, Rockingham Co, VA where John's son Fred D Dove also a preacher is a teacher with a doctorate in the department of Psychology and Education at the Bridgewater College. He has a son Fredrick Denton Dove and a daughter Barbara Dove. Fred has two sisters Mrs Margaret Layman of Cloverdale, VA and Mrs Sarah K Boaz of West Haven Conn. Fred like his great-grandfather Aaron is fond of hunting and fishing. A news record item of 4/14/1942 reads: National Forest soon available to Virginia sportsmen Assistant TE Clark told Rotarians at their weekly luncheon in which DSP Duke and Dr Fred Dove sat with watering mouths. Mr Clark told of the trout which had recently been placed in the streams.

I took a snapshot of Dr Fred Dove and his uncle Aaron E Dove at the old Dove homestead of their ancestors and mine at Dovesville beside the stream of water abounding with fish which were talking about when they told me I couldn't be a "Dove" since I was not interested in hunting & fishing. Fred Dove was elected Bridgewater Rotarian president in April 1941 (News Record Account) On April 30, 1941 Fred Dove and his uncle Aaron E Dove visited me at Broadway and we went to the old Dove Homestead in Brock's Gap.

(5) George W Dove Cabool Missouri merchant with his younger brother Jacob. No children.

(6) Aaron E Dove a railroad man retired close 1938 lived variously at Witchita KA around 1909 and around Dallas, Texas 1915 and around Bristol, Tenn-

Virginia and many years in Minneapolis Minnesota. To him is due the credit for gathering much of the information given in this history of the Aaron and Alpheus Dove families.

(7) Jacob S Dove youngest child of Fredrick Washington Dove lives at Cabool Missouri where his father and mother spent their last years. Jacob and his brother George are merchants in the City of Cabool. Jacobs children are Roy Dove died 1969 in Houston Texas and Sherman Dove of Knoxville, Tenn.

(In the compilation of this branch of the Doves history I began with the only member of the family I knew of Fred Dove of Bridgewater to whom I sent inquiry in 1940. He referred me to his uncle Aaron E Dove then of Bristol, Tenn, to whom I sent inquiry and in a series of letters gave me what information he was able to find and also some information from Mrs. Remer Fine, also from his oldest sister Mrs Mary K Sherman age 85. He obtained a photograph of Aaron Dove and Elizabeth his wife and their youngest daughter, Margaret. --This genealogy composed by Lonzo Dove 1941 and copied by Lewis Yankey 1981)

- Obituary of James W Dove of William R Dove. He died 10/7/1954 Denver Colorado. Buried 10/11/1954. Denver Colorado. James W Dove was born in the home of William R Dove Mathias WVA. He was one of ten children at an early age, this family removed to Crawford Nebraska and when James was a young man they treked farther west to Hoschkiss,; James Dove was a hardy pioneer and he entered with joy and dedication into the taming of the rugged frontier and wresting of the good life from an unwilling land. In 1901 James W Dove and Malissa Elsberry were wedded in marriage at the Elsberry home. The Doves lived in the vicinity of Grand Junction finally homesteaded in Craig Colo. The home was blessed with the arrival of Archie Dove now a resident of Philadelphia PA and Zelma Dove who preceeded her father in death in 1922. The family moved to Denver where they have resided since.

This has been a home blessed with the reigning presence of Christ and surrounded by true friends. James W Dove united with the Church of the Brethren as a young man and gave great service energy and ability to his life and work. Brother Dove was a deacon and a life long trustee in the Church. Slowly before our eyes the Lord has etched in the common experiences of the life and character of a saint, Brother Dove was a tower of strength in the Church, a source of inspiration to many and the story of love and forgiveness in the Lord. James W Dove was gathered home October 7, 1954 leaving his wife Melissa, a son Archie, three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren brothers and sisters and a host of friends and loved ones. His was a great life and happy are the memories we cherish are rich to the legacy he leaves. This was copied for me by Mary Melissa Elsberry. She is now deceased (LaJoy Dove Simmons)
